Customer Account # _____

I, _____, state that I am said owner of the above property and do hereby request that the water/electric be left on until I request, in writing, for it to be disconnected for the sole purpose of keeping insurance current on the house. I understand that if the property is sold, the utilities can not be left on in my name and the new owners are responsible for setting up their own account.

I understand that by signing this I am stating that no one will be living in the house and that all services except for water/electric will be billed to the account. I further understand that the account will be reviewed routinely and may be subject to being charged for all services if consumption on the account increases.
